For over a year, the Grand Rapids chapter of the International Thomas Merton Society has met monthly to discuss the works of Fr. Louis, which includes contemplation, mysticism, prayer, spirituality, love, building bridges, and how we may deepen our relationships, individually and in community - especially our relationship with God.

We invite you to join us for our September meeting where we will discuss chapters 8-11 of Thomas Merton's book, Contemplative Prayer, which is available at Baker Book House.

In our meetings you'll likely meet wonderful people (fellow seekers on the path, and potential new friends) and discover how relevant Thomas Merton still is today.

We are open to the public and free of charge.

Thomas Merton (1915-1968) was a Trappist monk who became one of the world's most widely read, talked about, and beloved authors and social activists.
